COTA NT is the peak Territory body advocating and working for Senior Territorians (over 50s)

New Patron for Over 50s Peak Body

Council on the Ageing (NT) the peak body advocating and working for seniors in the Territory is delighted to announce His Honour, the Honourable John Hardy OAM, Administrator of the Northern Territory as their patron.

Council on the Ageing (NT) - also known as COTA NT— was founded in 1969 and is the peak body in the Northern Territory advocating and working for seniors over 50.

COTA NT strongly advocates for age-friendly communities and environments, and non-discriminatory employment practice as part of its work in promoting a just, inclusive and equitable society for all Territorians.

Graeme Bevis, CEO of Council on the Ageing NT said, “We’re privileged that His Honour has become the patron of our organisation and is keen to help us promote the well-being and the awareness of our services to Seniors across the Territory. We are also delighted that the work of our Board, staff and volunteers has been recognised by His Honour, as we continue to lobby local, state and Federal government on seniors’ issues and rights.”
