Katherine Expo looks set to be jam-packed with chat

COTA NT's Seniors Expo in Katherine is shaping up to be a big day of conversations as over 25 exhibitors will be attending to answer questions – both big and small – from seniors and the wider community in Katherine on 16 March.

Attendees can enjoy easy parking, free entry and refreshments, plus a Silver Warriors demo and access to over 25 exhibitors, who are there to talk about the support and services available in Katherine including:

- Assistance to resolve complaints about health, disability and aged services and improve services.
- Katherine Public Library's memberships, programs, activities and events.
- Free civil legal advice and representation to all women of Katherine and the Big Rivers Region.
- Free dementia support program.
- Workforce support to people aged 55 and over seeking to work in the aged care and disability sector.
- Aged care reforms: what is under way and how you can have your say.
- Guardianship information, estate management, making a will and an advance personal plan.
- Safety resources and crime prevention information to help you be secure, become connected and stay safer.
- Retirement and independent lifestyle advice for fully or part self-funded retirees or those approaching retirement.
- Consumer protection information and rights regarding purchases and residential tenancies + freebie and helpful handouts.
- Information and services for carers looking after friends or relatives with a disability, medical condition or frailty.
- Community care including home and respite care.
- Reducing the cost of living through concession cards.

Registrations for Exhibitors close 3 March 2023.
